25X1A Nationals Visiting PortugalNO. OF ENCLS.
(LISTED BELOW)SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

25X1X

1. Czech nationals wishing to leave Czechoslovakia for Portugal, and who possess authorization from Prague to leave the country, are instructed to obtain for the Czech police the following information concerning Portugal:

Number of airports;

Types of airplanes;

Possibilities of crossing the Spanish frontier clandestinely;

Names of the principal banks and banking establishments;

Police aspect and vigilance exercised on highways, at customs and ports;

Social aspect of the country;

Places where the greatest concentrations of troops are stationed;

Influence of the Church on the people, and whether there is evidence 25X1A of any opposition to it.

2. [REDACTED] points out that exit visas are given only to Czech nationals who are members of the Czech Communist Party and who give unlimited guarantees; otherwise, but only in very rare cases, permission to depart is granted if a member of the family is left behind as a hostage, the latter being required to present himself to the police daily until the return of the person allowed to depart.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
